ccording to Bursa Malaysia Bhd Datuk chief executive officer Muhamad Umar Swift, companies with good environmental, social and corporate governance (ESG) practices have been more resilient since the start of the Covid-19 pandemic as investors' growing concerns over damage to the environment have led them to put more value on the effective management of ESG risks. While sustainable finance is still emerging in ASEAN capital markets, governments and regulators are making some meaningful efforts to promote and support the endeavour. The Covid-19 pandemic is widely seen to have given sustainability further impetus. Millennials and Gen Z are showing greater concern with respect to sustainability and changing expectations of businesses' role in improving society and protecting the environment. At the regional level, key developments include using the ASEAN Green Bond Standards, the ASEAN Social Bond Standards and the ASEAN Sustainability Standards to foster greater transparency and consistency across the region, whereby doing so reduces due diligence costs for investors. Preliminary work has also commenced for an ASEAN taxonomy of sustainable finance. For Bursa, sustainability has always been a significant growth driver, with its approach having considerable influence on the ecosystem — for public listed companies, investors and capital market intermediaries. With several recent listings of companies involved in the renewable energy space, Bursa sees a potential growth area, given increasing priority by consumers and investors on the sustainability front. These are some of the important steps that will help drive sustainability across the and guidance in identifying sustainable investment assets or activities. SC is currently in discussion with key industry stakeholders on guiding principles for SRI taxonomy. It has identified SRI taxonomy for the capital market as a critical building block to facilitate greater product diversity and accelerate the development of SRI as an asset class. It is also working with market participants to assess the benefits of positive screening that incorporates shariah requirements with environmental, social and governance (ESG) standards. To date, 64% of SRI sukuk issuances are for renewable energy projects. He sees the need to expand this base by targeting transformative technologies and industries with high spill over benefits for the country. In supporting the sustainable agenda in the region, the SC is involved in two key initiatives through the ASEAN Capital Markets Forum, namely the ASEAN Taxonomy for Sustainable Finance and the ASEAN Sustainability-linked Bond Standards. The ASEAN Taxonomy for Sustainable Finance also involves Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM), and it seeks to identify economic activities that are sustainable and helps direct investments and funding towards a more sustainable region. Meanwhile, the ASEAN Sustainability-linked Bond Standards provides an avenue for issuers to raise funds to meet sustainability targets.

Markets

Despite the Fed balance sheet crossing the next milestone of US$8 trillion, markets were spooked by a combination of events that saw commodities, other than oil, going into a tailspin while key benchmark rates fell resulting in a flattening of the US yield curve itself. The Dollar turned out to be a winner while markets start to price in expectations of a tapering move by the Fed. With all the Fed's assessment of the economic data points, in particular on inflation, the market itself has taken bets off on inflationary expectations and hence the strong rally on the long end of US treasuries. However, the market took comfort from Jerome Powell's recent comments that the Fed will not simply raise rates out of fears of inflation alone. Nevertheless, the Dallas Fed President, Robert Kaplan, commented otherwise as he sees a hike in US interest rates next year as economic data points would by then hit Fed's threshold levels in terms of inflation and unemployment.

Locally, international rating agency S&P Global Ratings (S&P) affirmed its "A-" longterm and "A-2" short-term sovereign credit ratings on Malaysia with the outlook on the long-term ratings remaining negative. S&P also lowered its GDP forecast on Malaysia for this year to 4.1% from 6.2% as it took into account the extended and stricter Movement Control Order period since June 1, 2021. The World Bank too has revised its growth forecast to 4.5% from 6% previously, mainly due to the resurgence of the number of Covid-19 cases and slower than expected vaccine roll-out.

Thailand, which is also impacted by the 3rd Covid-19 wave, downgraded its GDP growth forecast to 1.8% from the previous forecast of 2.3%.

Economy

US May 2021 housing data showed some weakness this week. First, sales of existing net foreign direct investments (FDI) for last year with the figure showing a 54.8% slump to RM14.6bil from RM32.4bil in 2019. Based on Bank Nagara's statistics, on a gross basis, inflows for last year fell by RM13.7bil or 8.9% to RM139.4bil, while outflows increased by RM4.0bil or 3.3% to RM124.8bil. Malaysia also disclosed the latest international reserves position of US$111mil as at June 15, 2021, up US$0.1bil compared with US$110.9bil a fortnight ago. In Ringgit terms, Malaysia's reserves hit a fresh record high at RM460.9bil.

Corporate

The Digi-Axiata merger plans came to light this week as both parties entered into a conditional share sale agreement. Valuing the acquisition of Axiata's Celcom at RM17.8bil, the purchase consideration will be satisfied via the issue 3.88bil shares @RM4.06 per Digi share and RM1.7bil in cash. In addition, as part of the agreement, Telenor Asia will also pay Axiata some RM297.9mil in cash upon the issuance of 73.4mil new Digi shares to the former. The merged entity would see the emergence of a new corporate name, Celcom Digi Berhad, with a total market capitalization of more than RM50bil based on Digi's current share price.

Few other M&A deals were announced this week. Generali, Italian's largest insurance company, is set to increase its presence in Malaysia in several transactions valued at RM1.29bil, which will see the company having a 70% stake each in AXA Affin Life Insurance and the merged entity between MPI Generali Insurance and AXA Affin General Insurance. Affin Bank will hold the remaining 30% stake in the two companies.

Mulpha International (Mulpha) has agreed to sell its 37.8% stake in New Zealand Education Perfect Group for a net sale consideration of NZ$156.2mil or RM451.3mil, excluding a potential earn-out provision of up to NZ$6.7mil or RM19.3mil. Mulpha expects to generate a MAA Group's offer on Turiya, after the former proposed to acquire a 57.8% interest for RM23.8mil or at 18 sen per Turiya share. The second was on BSL Corporation (BSL) after two individuals acquired a 51.7% stake in the company for RM57.5mil or at RM1.15 per BSL share.

With all the deal-making the past week, the deal by Kuala Lumpur Kepong to acquire a 90% stake in two oil palm plantation companies from TSH Resources for US$110mil or RM456mil was called off as both parties could not meet the conditions precedent to the transaction.

In other major corporate news, Serba Dinamik has decided to take the legal route against its auditor, KPMG PLT, for alleged negligence. In response, the auditor stressed that it will vigorously contest any court proceedings and has since tendered its resignation. Meanwhile, the Securities Commission too commented that the auditors must be allowed to carry out their statutory duties without fear or favour and discharge their duties without any retaliation.

Equity

Global equity markets closed mix to weaker the past week with markets that fell experiencing losses of between 0.1% and 2% while markets that rose gained between 0.1% and 1.7%. The KLCI closed the week 1% lower at 1,555.71 pts. For the week, local retailers emerged as sole net buyers with an inflow of RM451.2mil, as both local institutions and foreigners turned net sellers with outflows of RM211.7mil and RM239.5mil respectively.

Eye On Week Ahead

Key global indicators over the next few days are all the PMI indicators for June. Out of the US, later today, the market's attention will be on US Personal Consumption Expenditure (PCE) data, which is expected to rise by 0.6% m-o-m, and personal income and spending for May. Next Wednesday, investors will be focusing on the June US Consumer Confidence headline number, which is expected to show a reading of 117.2. Locally, Malaysia releases inflation data today while next week will be a busy week with external trade statistics for May will be out on Monday followed by Purchasing Price Index (PPI) and banking statistics on Wednesday, 30th June. As we reach the end of the 2Q period, the market too may see some window dressing activities while on the last day of the month.

homes fell by 0.9% to a seasonally adjusted annualized rate of 5.8mil units, which was below estimates, while new home sales too fell below forecast, with data showing only an annualised rate of 769k units, down 5.9% m-o-m. Down south, Singapore reported rising inflationary pressure with both headline and core inflation at 2.4% and 0.8% respectively. Across Europe, the economic momentum is surely gaining strength as the Flash Eurozone Purchasing Managers' Index (PMI) Composite Output Index surged to a 15-year high at 59.2 for June from 57.1 in May.

Domestically, Malaysia detailed out the gain of NZ$146.2mil or RM422.5mil or RM1.34 per share from the disposal.

Sunway too was in the news this week as it inked a deal to sell a 16% stake in its healthcare unit to Government of Singapore Investment Corporation (GIC) for RM750mil, giving an implied equity valuation of RM4.69bil and based on historical EV/EBITDA valuation of 31.3x. Sunway will recognise a gain of RM2.29bil from the share sale, mainly due to the gain arising from the dilution of equity interest from its shareholding.

Two unconditional mandatory take-over offers were triggered this week. First was

Bracing for uncertainties from COVID-19 crisis that refuses to go away

It has been more than a year after the COVID-19 pandemic hit Malaysian shore, but its impact on our lives and businesses is far from over. On 9 June 2021, Malaysia Smelting Corp Bhd (MSC) declared force majeure after suspending its tin mining and smelting operations from 4 – 14 June – in line with the nationwide full movement control order (FMCO/MCO 3.0) measures to curb the spread of the COVID-19 pandemic. MSC said the temporary suspension of operation is expected to have an impact on the company's operations and financial performance for the financial year ending 31 December 2021. However, it was unable to ascertain the extent of the impact. On the other hand, it had also issued a notice of force majeure to its customers as the disruption in production will lead to a slowdown in the company's scheduled delivery of tin metal. Pursuant to this, all contractual obligations were immediately suspended. A force majeure declaration aims to free parties in a contract from their obligations due to extraordinary circumstances.

In a related development, MSM Malaysia Holdings Bhd faced a somewhat similar fate, albeit of a lesser scale, as the company was forced to temporarily halt the operations of its plant in Seberang Prai (Penang) from 8 June until 15 June after eight positive COVID-19 cases were detected among the factory workers. MSM resumed its operation on 15 June after the thorough disinfection carried out successfully at the premises. The estimated impact of the temporary suspension based on the initial assessment to the company's revenue and earnings is less than 5% for its FY2021. The Company is also actively pursuing to claim the losses incurred during the suspension from insurer.

by 3.5% and 2.5% respectively for every week that its Malaysian facilities were not operating.

High degree of uncertainties

The operational hiccups that befell MSC, MSM and Kawan Food exemplify lingering concerns that the COVID-19 pandemic may continue to impact corporate earnings performances in the 2Q 2021and beyond, thus further undermining the equity market's near-term performance. Such insipid conditions could prolong with investors continuing to stay on the sidelines while waiting for further clarity of a turnaround on the pandemic condition and the consequent market's direction. From the business perspective, the Federation of Malaysian Manufacturers (FMM) which represents over 10,000 member companies within the manufacturing supply chain has expressed grave concern on the extension of the FMCO 3.0, or total lockdown, by a further two weeks until 28 June with no changes to the conditions for operating. FMM contended that with companies in the US and EU are starting to operate at full force. As such, it was imperative that Malaysia as a key manufacturing hub has to support these markets as part of their global supply chains. FMM called on the Government to pump-prime the economy with a RM200 billion stimulus package that comes with RM30 billion direct fiscal injection which encompasses extension of automatic loan moratorium, extension of the wage subsidy programme, suspension of selected statutory payments et cetera.

Echoing similar sentiment, the EU-Malaysia Chamber of Commerce and Industry (EUROCHAM Malaysia) had also expressed concern that the current state of total lockdown should only be a temporary measure and be thoroughly reviewed by end-June 2021. The Chamber said that there was a decline in Malaysia's reputation as a reliable partner in the international supply chain with companies being unable to fulfill orders or shifting production temporarily to other factory sites outside of Malaysia.

That the invisible enemy will not easily go away - but has even mutated to more resilient variants - has posed varying degrees of concerns. The Government estimated that the country suffered economic losses to the tune of RM1 billion daily throughout the current MCO 3.0 period. For comparison, the country lost about RM2.4 billion per day during the maiden movement control order (MCO 1.0 from 18 March - 3 May 2020) and about RM300 million to RM400 million daily during MCO 2.0 (13 January - 18 February 2021). As expected, the Government has initiated action to cushion the blow to the Malaysian economy following the imposition of a total lockdown which came into effect on 4 June by doling out the PEMERKASA+ assistance package valued at RM40 billion. With the seventh package to be rolled out to-date by the Government, the total cumulative economic stimulus is now valued at RM380 billion - equivalent to 24.2% of Malaysia's gross domestic product (GDP). All-in-all, the exercises involved a total fiscal injection of RM86 billion. The Government is executing its four-phase National Recovery Plan which was recently unveiled by the Prime Minister. Nevertheless, uncertainties loom on the economic outlook front for 2H 2021 in the event the recovery phases do not pan out as planned.

CGS-CIMB Research expects an extension to the total lockdown to raise the risk of 2Q 2021F corporate earnings disappointment to the gaming, retail, auto, REIT (real estate investment trust), property, construction and tourism-related sectors. Sectors least affected are export-oriented (technology, glove makers, petrochemicals, plantations) and utilities (including Tenaga Nasional Bhd, telcos, gas players) which are allowed to operate during MCO.

Also, in a similar predicament was Kawan Food Bhd which announced that it would suspend its operation for a week (14 – 21 June) due to the detection of 78 positive COVID-19 cases among its workers on 11 June. Based on its back-of-the envelope calculations, CGS-CIMB Research adjusted Kawan Food's revenue and net profit forecasts to contract

During such periods of uncertainty, many investors will get spooked and begin to question their investment methodologies and strategies. It is at times like this that investors should be extra vigilant with their investments and avoid rash and impulsive decisions.
