Is there an investment opportunity in CENTURY ALUMINIUM

SUMMARY

- Century Aluminum (NASDAQ:CENX) has shown weak performance, with revenue growth at 1.4% CAGR over the past decade, declining operating margins and a drop in NOPAT from USD40 million to USD 25million.

*Disclaimer: This article is written for informational purposes only. It does not constitute a solicitation, offer, advice, counseling or recommendation to buy or sell. - CENX's financial health is poor, with a 42% debt capital ratio, limited cash reserves, and insufficient cash flow to cover capital expenditures.
- Due to deteriorating fundamentals and reliance on Glencore, my valuation analysis suggests a negative equity value. Without a clear path for turnaround, CENX is not currently an investment opportunity.

INVESTMENT THESIS

CENX operates in a tough market where growth is limited. A significant portion of its sales - over two-thirds - comes from Glencore which controls it. CENX isn't performing well. This suggests that the company needs significant improvements. However, making those improvements might be difficult because of its history of poor performance and its dependence on Glencore for sales. This is not an investment opportunity given these challenges and its negative equity value.

BACKGROUND

CENX is a global producer of primary aluminum with "smelters," in the United States and Iceland. Glencore, one of the world's largest globally diversified natural resource companies, has a 46% interest in CENX.

Aluminum is an internationally traded commodity with cyclical prices, as seen from the left part of Chart 1. This makes CENX a cyclical company as clearly illustrated in the right part of Chart 1.

Sales to Glencore accounted for a significant part of CENX’s annual revenue. Over the past decade, these related-party sales averaged 71% of CENX’s annual revenue. Effectively, CENX operates like an in-house supplier to Glencore.

OPERATING PERFORMANCE

CENX has a poor operating track record:

- Revenue grew at 1.4% CAGR over the past decade.
- Operating margin declined from 7.3% in 2014 to 1.5% in 2023.
- Gross profitability (gross profits/total assets) declined from 9.7% in 2014 to 5.0% in 2023.
- NOPAT reduced from USD40 million in 2014 to USD25 million in 2023.
- Compared to its global peers, it performed the worst. Refer to Table 1.

All these paint a deteriorating business performance in need of a turnaround.

Company	Revenue CAGR	Op Income CAGR	PAT CAGR	Ave NOPAT Return	Ave ROE	Ave Gross profitability
Alcoa	-2%	-186%	12%	11%	-1%	14%
Century	1%	-183%	-204%	-3%	-13%	3%
China Hongqiao	13%	-13%	-5%	9%	12%	10%
Hindalco	5%	8%	43%	7%	8%	24%
Norsk Hydro	6%	20%	14%	15%	8%	30%

Table 1: Peer comparison – 2014 to 2023

Notes:

- 1) The 2023 was based on Sep YTD LTM results.
- 2) Alcoa - This NYSE company specializes in the production of aluminum, alumina, and bauxite.
- 3) China Hongqiao - Based in China, this is one of the largest aluminum producers in the world.
- 4) Hindalco - This Indian company produces and sells aluminum and copper products in India and internationally.
- 5) Norsk Hydro - This is a Norwegian multinational aluminum and renewable energy company.

FINANCIAL POSITION

I would rate CENX's financial position as poor based on the following:

- It has a 42% Debt Capital ratio as of the end of Jun 2024. As per the Damodaran Jan 2024 dataset, the Debt Capital ratio for the metals/mining sector was 14%.
- As of the end of Jun 2024, it had USD41 million in cash. This was about 2% of its total assets.
- It did not have a good capital allocation plan as shown in Table 2.

Items	Sources (USD m)	Uses (USD m)
Cash flow from Ops	290
Net Debt	281
New shares	2
Sale of securities	22
Dividends & buybacks		36
Net CAPEX incl acquisitions		558
Cash and misc		-1
Total	594	594

Table 2: Source and Uses of Funds 2014 to 2023

Note: The 2023 was based on the Sep 2023 LTM results

The cash flow from operations was not sufficient to fund the Net CAPEX and acquisitions. It had to increase its Net Debt for this.

The main positive point was its cash flow generation. Over the past decade, it generated positive cash flow from operations for 8 out of the 10 years. In total, it generated USD388 million in cash flow from operations compared to a total loss of USD640 million. This is a good cash conversion ratio. Note that since 46% is owned by Glencore, financial institutions might give CENX a bit more leeway when looking at its financial position.

VALUATION

CENX is a cyclical company. According to Professor Damodaran, projecting the performance of cyclical companies based on the current performances can lead to misleading valuations. It is more appropriate to base them on the normalized values over the cycle.

In the context of CENX, I took the 2011 to 2023 average values as the normalized values. Secondly, while it appears that CENX needs to turn around its performance, I took a negative view that because of being an “in-house” supplier to Glencore, it would be challenging to do this.

Instead, I assumed the historical normalized values as the likely values. In this context, I painted the following picture in valuing the company.

- The base revenue would be the average 2011 to 2023 revenue. Given its poor revenue growth record, I valued it based on its Earnings Power Value ie assuming growth = 0.
- The margin and capital turnover (revenue/total capital employed) would be the 2011 to 2023 average values.

On such a basis I obtained a negative equity value. The negative equity value arose because I first determined the value of the firm. This is the value to both the equity holders and those providing the loans. I then deducted the loan amount to arrive at the value to equity holders. Unfortunately, in the case of CENX, the loan was larger than the value of the firm resulting in a negative equity value. Table 3 illustrates the calculation.

Table 3: Valuation Summary

Note the following when looking at my valuation:

I have painted CENX as a company with poor fundamentals. Generally, a company in such a situation would be undertaking a turnaround. Accordingly, any valuation would be based on a more optimistic future assuming that the company can turn around.

I did not do this as I am not sure about any turnaround. CENX acts as a close supplier to Glencore. As such I am not sure whether there would be any change in the business model. About 2/3 of CENX's sales are to Glencore. At the same time, Glencore controls 46% of CENX. While I have analyzed CENX as a "standalone" company, I don't think we can look at it without considering Glencore's plans. I have not done this.

CONCLUSION

My fundamental analysis of CENX paints a company with poor fundamentals:

- It had deteriorating operating and capital efficiencies. These are exemplified by the declining margin and gross profitability.
- It is not financially sound.
- It performed among the worst when compared to its peers.

I would rate CENX as a company in need of a turnaround. But I have concerns about CENX delivering this. Together with the "negative" equity value, I do not think that this is an investment opportunity.

I am a long-term value investor who has held onto stocks for more than 5 years. My analysis and valuation are from such a perspective. I consider quarterly results "noisy" and focus on long-term trends.

BURSA MALAYSIA'S OUTLOOK REMAINS ROBUST - ABDUL WAHID

A ccording to Bursa Malaysia's chairman Tan Sri Abdul Wahid Omar, Bursa's market outlook remains robust, supported by sustained interest from both domestic and foreign investors. He was speaking in his welcome address at Invest Malaysia 2024 @ Iskandar Puteri, a flagship conference organised by Bursa Malaysia and co-hosted with Maybank, CIMB Securities and HSBC Malaysia.

He said the FTSE Bursa Malaysia KLCI had gained 15% YTD as of Wednesday's (Sept 25) close, positioning Bursa Malaysia as the best-performing market in ASEAN. This performance has brought the exchange's overall market capitalisation to RM2.05 trillion. The market has been very active, with the YTD average daily trading value increasing by 64% to RM3.37 billion from RM2.06 billion in 2023.

Foreign investors contributed 35% to the trading value, with a net inflow of RM3.99 billion. He attributed the strong performance to key factors, including a favourable macroeconomic environment in Malaysia, continued strong trade, and robust government support.

For the first half of 2024, Bursa Malaysia led ASEAN in IPOs, raising US$450 million, representing a 33% market share of the region's IPO market. He added that Bursa has recorded 35 listings to date, with RM6.1 billion in total funds raised and a total IPO market capitalisation of RM25.7 billion. There are several more listings anticipated in the remaining quarter of 2024, and he was optimistic about meeting the target of 42 IPOs this year, a level not achieved since 2006 with 40 listings.

The one-day conference themed "Where Policy Meets Progress" showcased Iskandar as the premier southern gateway to the country, with a focus on major developments, including the Johor-Singapore Special Economic Zone and other incentives for investors.

LAUNCH OF NATIONAL SUSTAINABILITY REPORTING FRAMEWORK PUTS MALAYSIA IN SELECT GROUP OF COUNTRIES

A ccording to Finance Minister II Datuk Seri Amir Hamzah Azizan, Malaysia has joined 20 countries globally in implementing standardised guidelines for sustainability reporting with the launch of the National Sustainability Reporting Framework (NSRF). Markets worldwide are moving towards a globally aligned sustainability reporting standard and the NSRF will enable Malaysia to get on that trajectory.

Speaking at the launch of the NSRF, he said the establishment of the ISSB (International Sustainability Standards Board) and its two inaugural standards was driven to address the absence of a unified set of standards for sustainability reporting and the need for a single common language. The NSRF is a framework in sustainability reporting using the disclosure standards issued by the ISSB. A key outcome from the NSRF is to support the ease of doing business with respect to sustainability reporting.

He added that prior to this, companies across markets face the burden of complying with multiple reporting standards, which increases not just the complexity of reporting but also the cost. By using the ISSB Standards, the NSRF intends to provide companies with an internationally recognised and standardised framework to provide reliable, decision-useful and globally comparable sustainability disclosures.

Adopting a phased approach, large-listed issuers on the Bursa's Main Market with market capitalisation of RM2 billion and above will begin using the ISSB Standards in 2025. It will extend to other Main Market listed issuers in 2026, followed by listed issuers on the ACE Market as well as large NLCos in 2027.

He noted that the NSRF has the support of the government-linked investment companies which are prioritising investments that contribute to sustainability goals, and address critical issues such as climate action, social inequality and economic inclusivity. This is reflected in their investment and engagement policy, as well as targets – including net zero portfolios and net zero emissions for their own operations by 2050.

Considering the huge financing requirement (RM1.3 trillion) to achieve the energy transition goals), the capital market in Malaysia must be ready to facilitate fund raising and investments.

Following the launch of the NSRF, Bursa Malaysia issued a consultation paper seeking public feedback on the proposed sustainability reporting enhancements to the Main Market and ACE Market Listing Requirements in line with the envisioned adoption of the NSRF.

BENEATH THE SURFACE

A series of events has driven Globetronics' share prices to the lowest point in over a decade. However, minority shareholders are kept in the dark about the developments within the Company.

WHAT'S BREWING IN GLOBETRONICS?

A knee-jerk reaction to the resignation of KPMG PLT as its auditors had triggered a sharp downfall in the share price of Globetronics Technology Berhad – in fact the steepest in over a decade to a low of 52 sen on 13 September 2024. The almost 33% plunge in a single day came about on 10 September after the outsourced semiconductor assembly and test (OSAT) and semiconductor player announced that it received a voluntary resignation notice dated 4 September from KPMG as its auditors pursuant to Section 281(2) of the Companies Act 2016.

In a media statement, Globetronics said KPMG's resignation which would take effect 21 days after the notice (i.e. on 25 September 2024) is "in line with the Group's new strategic direction, influenced by newly emerged shareholders and management". Subsequently, the Board of Globetronics shortlisted UHY Malaysia as its new auditor, pending the completion of official documentation to formalise the appointment and ensure consistency with its strategic objectives.

Compounding concerns of the uncertainties in Globetronics is that both its long-standing institutional investors – the Employees Provident Fund (EPF) and Lembaga Tabung Haji (LTH) – have also ceased to be its substantial shareholders, shortly after KPMG quit as its external auditor. Based on stock exchange filings on 13 September, EPF sold 9.48 million Globetronics shares on 10 September while LTH disposed of 4.02 million of the Company's shares on the same day.

While it was LTH's first time selling Globetronics shares since 2021, EPF has been trimming its stake in Globetronics throughout 2024 with selling activity intensifying from August when it offloaded 31.34 million or 4.6% of Globetronics' shares in August and September. Year-to-date, EPF has sold 70.65 million Globetronics shares representing a 10.46% stake in Globetronics, leaving it with about 26.21 million or 3.88% stake in the Company as of 11 September 2024. It used to own as much as 89.52 million shares or 13.26% in Globetronics back in March 2024.

Founded in 1991 and listed on Bursa Malaysia since 2001, Globetronics specialises in integrated circuits assembly and testing, quartz crystal products, optoelectronics, and technical plating services.

Operating primarily in Malaysia, the Company also serves markets in Southeast Asia and North America, thus establishing the group as a notable entity in the electronic manufacturing service and semiconductor sectors.

HOW THINGS UNFOLD

Recall that Globetronics' downward spiral unfolded after APB Resources Berhad made its way into the Company. In December 2023, APB Resources proposed to acquire a 10.37% stake, or 70 million shares, in Globetronics for RM140 million from General Produce Agency Sdn Berhad and Ng Kweng Chong Holdings Sendirian Berhad. The acquisition was completed on 15 February 2024.

While pending the completion of the transaction, on 17 January 2024, Globetronics shares suffered a heavy sell-off, with an intraday decline of 11.3%, bringing the share prices down to RM1.49. Joining Globetronics in the market sell-off that same day was APB Resources, with its shares plummeting 17.7% to RM2.05.

Following APB Resources' emergence, significant boardroom changes took place in Globetronics. Incumbent directors resigned and retired from the Board, making way for a new slate of directors, some of whom are linked to APB Resources.

Then on 10 May 2024, executive director Mr. Ng Kok Choon announced his retirement from the Board, marking the complete exit of the Ng family from Globetronics, which was co-founded 23 years ago by Michael Ng Kweng Chong. Kweng Chong stepped down as Executive Chairman of the Board on 1 November 2022. Based on Globetronics' closing price of 60.5 sen on 19 September, it is estimated that APB has suffered a significant paper loss of RM97.65 million for its investment in the former. Year-to-date, the counter has fallen by 62%.

Mirroring the downfall of Globetronics, APB Resources' share price plunged almost 30% to its 52-week low of 71 sen on 17 September 2024. This was followed by a further fall of 13 sen or 18.31% to 58 sen on 18 September. It closed at 60 sen on 19 September.

Notably, Bursa Malaysia suspended APB Resources' intraday short selling (IDSS) four times between 10 – 18 September, as the stock's last done price dropped by more than 15% or 15 sen from the reference price. Year-to-date, APB Resources has experienced a steep decline of 76.33%. On top of that, the external auditors of APB Resources had on 31 July expressed a "qualified opinion" on its latest audited financial statements about specific deposits amounting to RM22.78 million. Though the deposits were fully refunded after the relevant transactions were aborted, its auditors recommended that the Group to undertake extensive procedures to verify the business rationale of these transactions and assess any potential non-compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

Above all else, APB Resources borrowed heavily to acquire 70 million shares in Globetronics for RM140 million or RM2 per share which was deemed a premium to the RM1.50 trading range of Globetronics shares at the time. It borrowed RM95 million at a 6.15% interest rate to fund the acquisition, while the remaining sum was financed through internally generated funds. As it is, APB Resources is currently faced with a double jeopardy situation – it not only has to contend with repayment of the massive loan but also the huge paper loss of close to RM100 million following the drastic dip in Globetronics' share value.

ARE THINGS LOOKING UP FOR GLOBETRONICS?

As it is, the current outlook for Globetronics is far from convincing. Its net profit for 1HFY2024 ended 30 June 2024 inched down 3.64% to RM10 million from RM10.38 million a year ago while its revenue fell 10.8% to RM57.66 million from RM64.64 million. However, a bigger decline was seen in the quarter under review whereby its net profit for the period ended 30 June 2024 retreated 39.6% to RM4.27 million (Q2FY2023: RM7.08 million) while its revenue eroded 11.91% to RM27.76 million (Q2FY2023: RM31.51 million).

Adding to the woes was a sharp rise in Globetronics' other receivables, deposits and prepayments, which surged to RM65.56 million as of 30 June 2024, from RM1.04 million just six months earlier. Without further clarification from the management, speculation is inevitable regarding the nature of these items.

On top of this, UOB Kay Hian Research has ceased coverage of Globetronics "due to a reallocation of team resources". Following a switch in valuation, the research house contended that its PE-based target price of RM1.20 on 24 August (on "hold" rating) has since been lowered to 60 sen based on a 1.3x PBV (price-to-book value ratio) based on 2025 BVPS (book value per share).

In summary, the investing public is kept in the dark about the developments at Globetronics – especially on the corporate front – with its business prospects having taken a sharp turn ever since APB Resources emerged as a substantial shareholder and assumed management control. Ooi Keng Thye, who first emerged as a substantial shareholder in Globetronics back in July 2023, now holds the largest stake in Globetronics with 11.39%.

All in all, the resignation of auditors and the exodus of institutional funds do not send a positive signal to the market. What underlying issues are driving this selloff by institutional funds? Did they possess information that is not privy to minority shareholders? In the absence of clarity from the Company on what is likely to lie ahead, the investing public is left to speculate, fuelling further uncertainty.

MSWG HIGHLIGHTS

In the 6 September 2024 edition of The Observer, MSWG brought attention to another privatisation attempt, this time targeting Grand Central Enterprises Bhd (GCE). This development followed closely on the heels of the MPH Capital Berhad's privatisation case reported the previous week, raising red flags among minority shareholders who voiced concerns over the steep offer price discount.

The privatisation move was first announced on 22 July 2024 by GCE's controlling shareholders—Hotel Grand Central Limited (HGCL) and Tan Chee Hoe & Sons Sdn Bhd (TCHSSB), who collectively hold a substantial 73.39% stake in GCE. As the Proposers or Joint Offerors, they aimed to acquire the remaining 26.61% or 52.43 million GCE shares that they did not already own. The Joint Offerors proposed to withdraw GCE's listing status on Bursa Malaysia, with an Exit Offer of 46 sen per share should the resolution approved by shareholders in an extraordinary general meeting (EGM) held on 13 September. Again, the offer price sparked controversy among minority shareholders over the fairness of the offer.

The Independent Adviser (IA), Main Street Advisers Sdn Bhd, stated in its independent advice letter dated 22 August 2024 that the Exit Offer was “not fair but reasonable.” While the IA recommended that shareholders accept the offer, many long-term shareholders were dissatisfied. They viewed the 46 sen per share offer as a steep discount—60.68% and 52.08% below GCE’s Revalued Net Asset Value (RNAV) and Net Asset Value (NAV), respectively.

Several minority shareholders informed MSWG they would vote “Against” the Proposed Withdrawal at the EGM. However, they acknowledged that their numbers were too small to sway the outcome in their favour.

THE EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING OF GCE

The EGM, which took place on 13 September 2024 at GCE’s Grand Continental Hotel in Kuala Lumpur, was attended by approximately 30 shareholders. Despite the Board Chairman’s absence, one of the Executive Directors chaired the meeting, with other directors in attendance. Minority shareholders took the opportunity to voice their concerns directly to the Board, the Valuer, the Independent Adviser, and the Principal Adviser regarding the terms of the privatisation.

MSWG played a key role in leading the Q&A session, raising several critical points, including:

- Cash Reserves and Offer Price: MSWG pointed out that GCE Berhad had RM42.5 million in cash as of 30 June 2024, which equates to 22 sen per share.

After accounting for this cash, the effective offer price was reduced to 24 sen per share, a much steeper 75% discount to GCE's RNAV of 95 sen (excluding the 22 sen cash per share). We wanted to know why the Joint Offerors intended to keep the cash in the Company for themselves instead of distributing it to all shareholders.

2. Business Operations: We questioned the rationale behind the Proposed Withdrawal. It was suggested that GCE could use its RM42.5 million cash reserves to refurbish its hotels, starting with Hotel Grand Continental Kuala Lumpur, where refurbishment costs were estimated at RM12.3 million. Moreover, with all five hotels unencumbered, GCE could raise funds through bank borrowings using its assets as collateral.
3. Role of Independent Directors: We questioned the Independent Directors on how they had acted in the best interest of minority shareholders by allowing such a steeply discounted offer to proceed.
4. Negotiations for a Better Deal: We inquired whether the Independent Directors had made any efforts to negotiate for a higher offer price to benefit minority shareholders, given the substantial discount the current offer represented.

The voting process was conducted manually, with shareholders submitting their votes via forms. As the Proposed Withdrawal was not deemed a related party transaction and did not present a conflict of interest under the Listing Requirements, as such, interested parties were not required to abstain from voting on the resolution at the EGM, regardless of their direct or indirect shareholdings. Despite the uphill battle, MSWG played a pivotal role in galvanising support, convincing minority shareholders to attend the meeting, and exercising their voting rights.

MSWG's efforts bore fruit. At the EGM, 10.76% of votes were cast against the special resolution to approve the Proposed Withdrawal. 42 shareholders present - either in person or by proxy - voted "Against" the offer, ultimately preventing the special resolution from being passed. Had it not been for the rejection of two proxy forms invalidated due to insufficient notice, the percentage of votes opposing the resolution would have been even higher.

MSWG'S PRESS RELEASE

MSWG issued a press release following GCE's EGM, underscoring the importance of minority shareholder activism and our ongoing commitment to defending the rights of minority shareholders in Malaysia. The rejection of the special resolution at the EGM was a victory for shareholder democracy, proving that despite overwhelming odds, minority shareholders could make a difference when united. Our press release received encouraging coverage from local dailies including Nanyang Siang Pau and Oriental Daily News.
